SATISFACTORY COURSE PROGRESS

POLICY AND PROCEDURES

AIM: To monitor ELICOS students' course progress in accordance with National Code Standard 10

SCOPE: All students enrolled in RIGT Australia's ELICOS courses.

RESPONSIBILITY: Academic head of English department and student services manager.

DEFINITIONS
General English	Study period	One 24 week period
For English for Academic Purposes (EAP)	Study period	A 5-week period divided as follows: a. Module 1 (weeks 1-5) b. Module 2 (weeks 6-10)
IELTS Test Preparation course	Study period	A 4-week period divided as follows: a. Module 1 (weeks 1-4) b. Module 2 (weeks 5-8)
Satisfactory course progress	Satisfactory completion of at least 50 percent of assessments set for one study period.
Unsatisfactory course progress	Failure to satisfactorily complete 50 percent or more assessments in two consecutive study periods
PRISMS	Provider Registration and International Students Management System managed by the Australian Federal Government

POLICY

1. Satisfactory Course Progress Requirements

- i. Student progress is assessed at the end of each study period by classroom teacher.
- ii. The first day of a student's study period is the first day of studies indicated on the student's confirmation of enrolment.
- iii. To achieve satisfactory course progress, students must pass at least 50 percent of all assessments set for the study period. If students fail 50 percent or more assessments in two consecutive periods, the students will be deemed to be making unsatisfactory course progress.
- iv. A student who fails 50 percent or more assessments in a single study period only is sent a warning, via SMS, email and/or mail, that the student is at risk of making unsatisfactory progress and that the student needs to contact the school to implement an intervention strategy (see below).

SATISFACTORY COURSE PROGRESS POLICY AND PROCEDURES

- v. A student who fails 50 percent or more assessments in two consecutive study periods is sent a warning, via email or mail, informing the student that the school intends to report the student for unsatisfactory course progress and that he or she has 20 days within which to appeal.

2. Intervention Strategies

Intervention strategies aim to assist students experiencing academic progress difficulties. Intervention strategies may include but are not limited to:

- a. Providing students with additional homework
- b. Assisting students in developing more effective in-class study skills such as learning to ask questions if the student does not understand or keeping a vocabulary book of the day's new words
- c. Assisting students in developing more effective out-of-class study skills such as diary-keeping, developing networks and out-of-class peer support groups through whom they can learn English
- d. Moving student to a lower level English proficiency class
- e. Counselling students on the importance of maintaining good attendance
- f. Receiving individual case management
- g. Appointing a student mentor to assist during classes
- h. Reviewing student's organisational/time management skills
- i. Referral to an external counsellor
- j. Recommending private tutoring outside class hours (additional costs may apply)

3. Intervention Strategy Activation

An intervention strategy is activated when the school sends the student either a SMS, letter or email indicating that the student is at risk of not making satisfactory course progress and that the student needs to contact the school immediately to implement an intervention strategy.

The following section details the process for intervention strategy activation and the reporting of students making unsatisfactory course progress.
