Date: Thursday, 19 April 2018

RGIT Australia's Hobart campus would like to invite Hobart's media professionals to attend the first ever graduation ceremony of newly trained industry professionals at Hobart Town Hall tomorrow evening, 20 April 2018.

Tasmania is gripped by an ever increasing number of visitors keen to savour all that the state has to offer, but often, concern is expressed that the tourism industry finds staffing and continuous demands for international level service hard to satisfy.

RGIT Australia is one of the leading vocational education and training colleges in Australia. In 2016 the founder, Chandra Yonzon, made a strategic decision to establish an RGIT Australia campus in Hobart to produce more quality and skilled graduates to serve the exponential growth in the hospitality industry.

The purpose built, state of the art training facilities in central Hobart is staffed by a dedicated training and administration team who are driven by RGIT Australia's mission to foster a passion for cooking and professionalism that lasts a lifetime.

As a necessary complement to culinary skills training RGIT Australia Hobart campus has extended its offerings to provide students with additional business excellence skills training which provide a blend of business acumen with the opportunity to also gain an in depth knowledge of the art of food preparation and service. To provide ultimate choice either offering can be taken alone or in combination. We believe that this dual emphasis will serve both the graduates and the state well and RGIT Australia will continue to provide opportunities to enter this vital life time profession.

Your participation will be greatly appreciated by both graduates and management.
