Why Study at RGIT Australia?

INDUSTRY EXPERIENCED TRAINERS

RGIT Australia's Trainers & Assessors combine years of international and local industry experience to train students in their chosen fields.

HANDS-ON TRAINING

Many of RGIT Australia's courses provide hands-on practical experience through Work-Based Training (WBT) or Professional Experience Placement (PEP) to ensure that students gain hands-on training in real-life environments.

ACADEMIC PATHWAYS

RGIT Australia's Vocational Education and Training (VET) courses are nationally recognised, and graduates may seek credits to relevant degree programs at Australian universities.

STUDENT EXCURSIONS

RGIT Australia students may have the opportunity to participate in excursions in and around Melbourne and Hobart to engage with local industries.

Students Gain Industry Experience While They Study

Work-Based Training (WBT) and Professional Experience Placement (PEP)

Students undertaking RGIT Australia's Early Childhood Education and Care, Community Services or Hospitality courses will complete WBT components as part of their training. RGIT Australia's WBT practical placement is designed to give students a chance to perform tasks relating to their course in an appropriate, local industry setting.

Students undertaking RGIT Australia's HLT54115 Diploma of Nursing program will complete a minimum of 480 hours of PEP supervised by a clinical teacher. WBT and PEP ensure that the skills students are learning are transferable and can be demonstrated within real life work environments.

Melbourne

Melbourne is an attractive, spacious city with an abundance of parks, gardens, sporting venues and scenic surrounds.

- Capital city of Victoria
- A modern, multicultural city - the culture capital of Australia
- Pleasant climate with four seasons
- Lively, year-round festivals and entertainment
- Festival capital in Australia

Hobart

Hobart is a beautiful city and popular holiday destination renowned for its heritage buildings, rich maritime history, beautiful parks and fine restaurants.

- Capital city of Tasmania
- Laid-back culture with a regional vibe
- A rich history as one of Australia's oldest cities
- A maritime climate with four seasons in a year

Working While Studying

International students are eligible to work part-time or on a casual basis while studying in Australia*. RGIT Australia's Student Job Portal is designed to assist students in finding work while they study.

What Students Need to Know

- Once the course commences, students are permitted to work a maximum of 40 hours per fortnight when their course is in session, and unlimited hours when their course is out of session (i.e. holiday breaks).
- The minimum wage is $18.93 per hour in Australia.
- It is acceptable for employers to pay employees in cash as long as it is as the correct award rate, tax has been taken from the employee's earnings and sent to the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) and being correctly reported by the Employer.
- You should receive a pay slip within one day of being paid.

Cost of Living

Australia is a sophisticated, friendly country that enjoys one of the highest standards of living in the world.

Students will need a minimum of AU $20,290* per year (excluding tuition) to cover living expenses such as accommodation, food, clothing, entertainment, transport, international and domestic travel and other incidental costs.

The cost of living, however, depends a lot on the kind of accommodation a student chooses. A married student with dependents will need approximately an additional AU $7,100* per year for each dependent.

Accommodation

There is a wide range of options for students to find suitable accommodation while studying in Australia. Students can choose to live with a local family or share a house with other students and locals.

Home Stay

This option is an opportunity for students to live in a private home, with a local family, couple or single person and learn about Australian life. There are different types of home stay arrangements ranging from AU $235.00 to AU $325.00 per week.

Full Board

Usually includes a furnished room (bed, desk, lamp, wardrobe), three meals per day and bills (electricity, gas and water, but not telephone and internet). Some homestay providers may even do student's laundry.

Half Board

Half board usually includes a furnished room (bed, desk, lamp, wardrobe) and bills (electricity, gas and water, but not telephone and internet). Students have the use of the cooking and laundry facilities in the house.

Lease/Rent

Renting an apartment or house is usually done through a real estate agent. You must sign a contract called a 'lease' to rent the house, either month-by-month, or sometimes a 6-month, 12-month or 2-year lease is required. Costs associated with shared accommodation range from AU $85.00 to $215.00.

Share House

Share houses are known as rental places with spaces separate from a private room where the residents can gather together to "share" and "exchange" in a new and exciting way of living. Share houses have lower initial and monthly costs compared to regular rental apartments and one can live quite reasonably in them.

What our students say

Denison Tarsitano Carvalho Días
Certificate IV in Business

“ When I arrived in Melbourne, I was very warmly welcomed. I knew that I had made the right choice when I saw how knowledgeable my Business Trainer was, and the support staff gave to myself and others adapting to the Australian education system.”

Carlos Zambrano
General English Level 3

“ All my friends speak Spanish and I had no opportunity to practice English, but at RGIT Australia, as students are from different countries, I could only communicate using English. My trainer always gave personalised inputs to my work. My vocabulary has improved and now I know many new expressions.”

Laura De Angelis
Certificate III in Commercial Cookery Graduate

“ RGIT Australia was a place where I could meet lots of students from different countries and cultures. We always enjoyed each other's company in class and on excursions. Not only that, if I had any issues, the staff were always there to help me find a solution.”
